

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

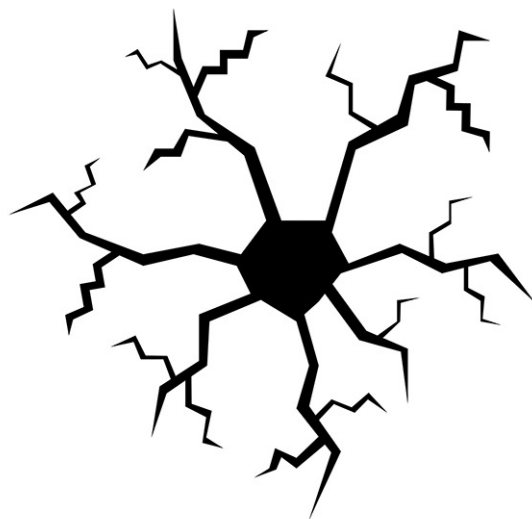

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: The Disaster Date

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can use and pronounce the double ee sound.
- I can use appropriate sentence stress.
- I can identify key information in a short audio.

Ask your partner:

- When did you have a bad night out with friends? What did you do?
- What happened? Why did you have a bad night?

Let's Explore!

Listen to Sally and Vanessa videochat about Vanessa's date with Marco. How did the disastrous date end?

* "Disastrous" means very bad or unfortunate.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: What happened after your phone died?
Vanessa: Things went from bad to worse.
Sally: How?
Vanessa: He started arguing with the police officer.
Sally: Really? Why?
Vanessa: The police officer couldn't say his name properly. He kept calling him Mark or Markus.
Sally: He does have a strong accent and he was slurring ... right?
Vanessa: Yeah, it was embarrassing. I just looked down at my feet the whole time.
Sally: How did the night end?
Vanessa: The officer took his driver's license and told him to collect it from the station in the morning.
Sally: How did you get home?
Vanessa: We had to walk up Hillier street and across the bridge in the dark.
Sally: You walked all the way home? What a nightmare!
Vanessa: Let's meet up when you get back. You should see the photos!

Let's Practice!

Let's practice saying words with the double ee sound.

Instructions: Practice reading the words and sentences aloud.

1. feet
2. street
3. meet
4. see
5. I just looked down at my feet the whole time.
6. We had to walk up Hillier street and across the bridge in the dark.
7. Let's meet up when you get back.
8. You should see the photos!

Let's Practice!

What happened at the end of the night?

Instructions: Find and fix the mistake. Each sentence has 1 mistake.

1. The officer took his driver's license and told him to collect it from the sargint in the morning.
2. How did you maik it home?
3. Yo waked all the way home? What a nightmare!

Extension Activity

Imagine you are Vanessa or Marco on this disaster date. What would you say? What would you do?

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Go online and find 15 words that are spelled with the double ee. Make a list.
- With a partner, create a 3-minute role play on what happened on Marco and Vanessa's date.
- Use at least 5 words that have a double ee in the conversation.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I can use the Internet to find new words to use in conversations.

☐ ☐

I create a 3-minute role play about a date.

☐ ☐

I role play with a partner.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- sergeant (noun): an officer in a police force with a rank below captain e.g. Marco had to get his driver's license from the sergeant in the morning.
- to make it home (expression): to arrive home safely
e.g. How did you make it home that night?
- all the way (expression): the entire distance
e.g. We had to walk all the way home.
- from bad to worse (expression): a negative situation that does not improve e.g. The evening went from bad to worse.
- to collect (verb): to get things from different places
e.g. He has to collect his license from the police station.

Learning Points

Sentence Stress

Sentence stress gives English its rhythm or "beat".

Word stress is emphasis on one syllable within a word.

Sentence stress is emphasis on certain words within a sentence.

Most sentences have two basic types of words:

Content Words

- Content words are the important or key words of a sentence. They provide the meaning of the sentence.

Structure Words

- Structure words are not important words. They are small words that you use to make the sentence correct.

Examples:

- He started arguing with the police officer.
- What a nightmare!
- You should see the photos.
- Things went from bad to worse.

