Let's Start!

I can't believe it! What a story!

Learning Outcome

Describe characteristics of different people and their jobs.

Ask your partner:

- What's the most unbelievable event to ever happen to you?
- What are some of the most unbelievable funny incidents that have happened in your life?

Can Do Statements

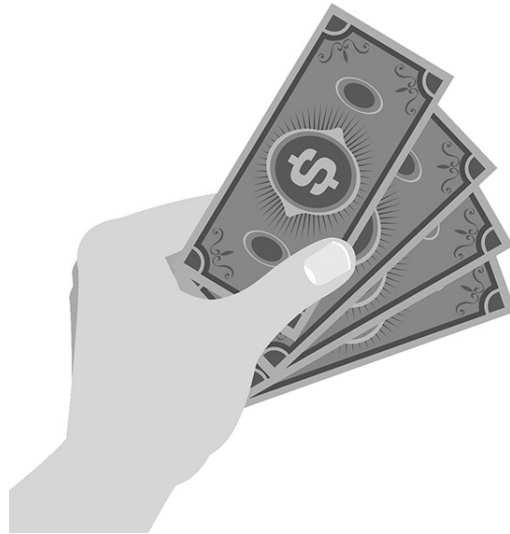

- I can talk about people's personality.
- I can talk or report about actions, events or people.
- I can say what I was doing when something else happened.

Let's Explore!

Vanessa tells Sally more about her nightmare date with Marco. What happened at the restaurant?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: So, you ran into his ex-girlfriend ... what happened next?
Vanessa: She was the waitress!
Sally: Oh no!
Vanessa: While we were ordering, she kept giving Marco flirty looks. He was drinking like a fish, too!
Sally: Ugh, that's terrible!
Vanessa: Mhmm ... when the bill came, he was looking at me like I had to pay for it. I was completely speechless.
Sally: What a cheapskate!
Vanessa: It's too bad, because the food was exquisite.
Sally: What a waste!
Vanessa: He became really pushy while we were leaving the restaurant and tried to get his ex's attention.
Sally: What was he doing?
Vanessa: He was yelling and acting really obnoxious.
Sally: I can't believe it!
Vanessa: Then his ex-girlfriend came out and started yelling at him, calling him all sorts of names.
Sally: What happened next?

What Are Idioms?

Idioms are expressions which have a meaning apart from what the words themselves mean.

They are very common in spoken English. It is important to know some idioms and to remember that the meaning of the words as a group is different from the words individually. Here are some idioms:

Idiom	Meaning
He was drinking like a fish.	He was drinking a lot of alcohol.
Actions speak louder than words.	You can judge people better based on what they do rather than what they say.
The ball is in your court.	The next decision is yours.
Don't judge a book by its cover.	Don't judge someone based only on their appearance.
Hit the nail on the head.	Do or say something exactly right.

More About The Past Continuous Tense

There are some general rules to remember when you use the Past Continuous tense.

The word while usually comes before the Past Continuous clause. The word when usually comes before the Past tense.

Examples:

- While we were ordering, she kept giving him flirty looks.
- When the bill came, he was looking at me like I had to pay for it.
