Let's Explore!

Vanessa tells Sally about her date with Marco. It was a nightmare! Why?

* You use this expression to describe something that was terrible.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: Sally! I'm so happy I caught you!
Sally: Hey, V! Yeah. When you rang I was just getting ready to leave. What's up?
Vanessa: I had a big fight with Marco! He's so fake!
Sally: Really? I thought you guys were getting along so well!
Vanessa: Not anymore! He took me to a movie, which I thought was going to be super fun. It was totally repulsive, not a date movie! After we left the theater, he was so quiet and aloof. I thought I did something wrong.
Sally: How strange!
Vanessa: Yeah, it was really weird.
Sally: What did you do?
Vanessa: I just pretended everything was fine. We got in his car and drove to this really trendy restaurant.

Learning Points

The Simple Past Tense

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about:

- actions or events that happened at a specific time in the past
- finished events in the past

You use the Simple Past to tell a story and report about actions, events and people.

There are regular and irregular verbs.

You need to change the spelling of irregular verbs to make them Past tense.

Here are some examples:

Irregular Verb	Past Tense
catch	caught
ring	rang
take	took
think	thought
leave	left
have	had
get	got
drive	drove

Examples:

- I'm so happy I caught you!
- We got in his car and drove to a restaurant.
- He took me to a movie.

Learning Points

The Past Continuous Tense

You use the Past Continuous Tense to talk about an action that was happening in the past.

You often use the Past Continuous tense and the Simple Past tense together in a sentence.

You use both of these tenses to talk about an action that interrupted another action.

For example:

When you rang (SIMPLE PAST) I was getting ready to leave (PAST CONTINUOUS).
