

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

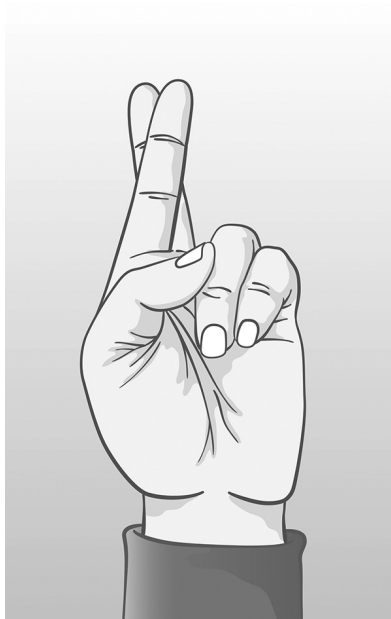

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

I promise I won't do it again!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- What promises do you usually make?
- When can't you keep your promises?

Can Do Statements

- I can make and respond to promises.
- I can talk about possible actions and events in the future.
- I can talk about how frequently I do something.

Let's Explore!

Marco apologizes for his behavior. What does he promise?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Marco: Vanessa, I'm really sorry about the other night.
- Vanessa: You mean when we saw that awful movie, ran into your ex-girlfriend and then were questioned by the police?
- Marco: Uh, yeah. I never acted like that. I don't know what happened. I think I was upset about work or something.
- Vanessa: Well, promise me that you'll talk to me about it next time? It's not good to bottle things up inside.
- Marco: I promise I won't behave like that again. I'll always tell you what's on my mind.
- Vanessa: OK, Marco.
- Marco: I might be going hiking again this weekend. Will you come with me? I would love to treat you to a nice, romantic day. You deserve it!
- Vanessa: Hmm ... I may be working on the weekend. I have to check my timesheet.
- Marco: OK.
- Vanessa: I'll let you know later today.

Let's Practice!

I'm really sorry about the other night* ...

*This is a time market that talks about a night in the recent past Instructions: Read the dialogue again. Choose the words from the box to correctly complete the sentences.

may / be / deserve / I'll let / I will / maybe / Will Marco: I might _____ going hiking again this weekend.

_____ you come with me? I would love to treat you to a nice, romantic day. you _____ it!

Vanessa: Hmm ... I _____ be woking on the weekend. I have to check my timesheet.

Marco: OK.

Vanessa: _____ you know later today.

Let's Practice!

It's not good to bottle things up* ... so promise me you won't.

*This is an idiom meaning to not talk about your problems.

Instructions: Complete the sentence by selecting the correct answer.

1

behave behaving behaved

2

I'll
I'm
Ill

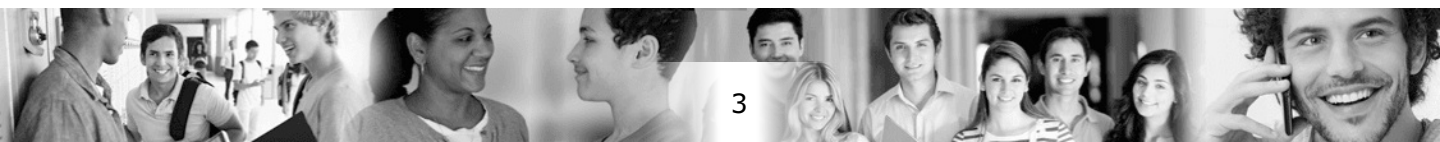

3

called call calling

4

they they're they'll

1. I promise I won't _____ like that again!
2. _____ always tell you what's on my mind.
3. He'll _____ you later, I promise.
4. They promise _____ let me know.

Extension Activity

Do a role play!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Read each role card.
- Choose a role.
- Create a dialogue about the situation with your partner.
- Switch roles and practice again.
- Think of two more roles and do another role play.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I read both roles.

☐ ☐

I practice with my partner.

☐ ☐

I use will, may or might.

☐ ☐

I make promises.

☐ ☐

Role 1:

You are a student. You didn't do your assignment. You have to talk to your teacher and promise you will do it later.

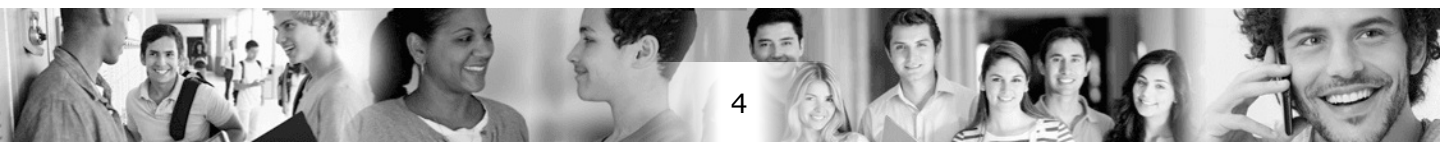

Role 2:

You are a teacher. Your student didn't do their assignment. They make a promise. Respond to the promise.

Target Words

- to act (verb): to do something in a particular way
e.g. I never act like that. I don't know what happened.
- to behave (verb): to act in a particular way
e.g. I won't behave like that again.
- to bottle things up inside (expression): to keep your feelings inside and not talk about them
Example: It's not good to bottle things up inside.
- to deserve something (verb): to behave in a way that is worthy of reward
e.g. You deserve a nice, romantic date.
- on my mind (expression): use this to talk about something you are thinking about e.g. I'll always tell you what's on my mind.
- awful (adjective): terrible; very bad
e.g. We saw that awful movie.

Learning Points

Making and Responding to Promises

When you make a promise to someone, you tell them that you will definitely do something in the future.

You use will to make promises.

I'll never behave like that again.

I promise I'll talk to you about it next time.

I promise I won't behave like that again!

OK.

Sounds good.

I hope so!

Examples:

- Ben: I'll always talk to you about my problems.
- Becca: I hope so! I promise I'll listen.

Talking About Possible Actions in the Future

You use the Future tense (will) to talk about actions in the future. You can also use the modals might and may to talk about possible actions in the future.

The auxiliary will goes before the verb. The short form is 'll. The negative form of will not is won't.

You use the Future tense when you talk about the future, make offers or make predictions.

The modals might and may go before the verb.

They talk about future possibility or chance that something will happen.

Might means there is a smaller chance that something will happen (30%).

May means there is a slightly greater chance that something will happen (50%).

Examples:

- Petra: Will you come with me?
- Kevin: Hmm ... I may be working on the weekend. I'll let you know later today.

